The I. B. Casner sale of surplus stock Thursday was fairly well attended, and everything but the horses sold at reasonably good prices—brood sows going at an average of $10.50; cattle, mostly young heifers, at an average of $8.00, one sucking calf selling for $50. About 20 head of the 75 horses were sold at an average of $150. Mr. Casner stopped the sale on horses, as they were going too low. Most of the horses were sired by King Tom, a fine draft stallion that cost Mr. C. $1500. He had paid $100 each for a number of the horses when they were colts, and didn't feel like knocking them off at cost. The sale aggregated $4,500. Only about half the property was sold. J. W. Thornhill was the auctioneer.

The Absent Fred.
A resident of Deatur who was lately in St. Louis, happened to meet Fred Abolt in that city—the same Fred under sentence of one year for forgery who left Deatur some months ago, stating that he would return when he heard from the supreme court. That court has reported, refusing the contention of Fred a new trial, but possibly the principal in the case has not yet been officially notified of the decision. The citizen talked with Abolt. He was in a wretched state—clothes and dirty, face unshaven, and having the appearance of a man who had been having a tough time, with no prospect of improving his condition. Fred is a striking example of what years of litigation will do for a man, physically and financially.

Her Sufferings Ended.
Mrs. Lora Bohon, wife of R. S. Bohon, passed away at the family residence on East Wood street yesterday afternoon, in the 33rd year of her age. The deceased was a young woman who has been afflicted for a number of years, and had borne her sufferings with christian fortitude. Her recent trip to New Orleans gave her but temporary relief. Her devoted husband gave her every possible attention that money could command or love suggest. Now she is at rest, leaving a husband and one child—a daughter aged six years. Mrs. Bohon was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Anderson, and was a graduate of the Deatur High School.

The funeral took place from the residence this afternoon, Rev. Dr. Vosburgh, of the Baptist Church, of which the deceased was a member, conducting the services.

Sentiment at the Capital.
One of the leading lawyers at Springfield, being asked by the News yesterday what he thought of the chance that Governor Oglesby would commute or pardon in the Anarchists' case, said: "I don't think he will interfere. The justice of the punishment is too evident, and all the courts have been appealed to and justify the verdict; the only ground of relief would be that they did not deserve to die, and the seven murdered policemen will not allow the Governor to say that."

Ex-Governor Palmer said: "I do not think Gov. Oglesby will interfere to stop the execution of the Anarchists." He said, "the highest courts in the land have declared that the verdict is just. One Gov. Oglesby is not going to be swayed in his manifest duty by any trifling consideration." Gov. Palmer continued: "As for the idea of it being inhuman to hang these men, I can see no sense in that. They killed several policemen, didn't they, and wounded many more. Is that inhumanity?"

Judgment Settled.
Messrs. Catto & Luce this week paid the judgment Mrs. Minson obtained against them for malpractice in the treatment of her husband who died a little over a year ago. The amount of the judgment was $1250.—Warrensburg Times.

At the depot junction of the Wabash and Illinois Central railroads last evening, the Wabash gravel train collided with the Central switch engine, which was hurled from the rails and materially damaged. The blame is said to rest with the Central engineer or the target tender. The crossing was blocked for two hours.

SATURDAY evening the adorable Patti Rosa will appear at the opera house in her inimitable impersonation of "Bob," which is one of her old successes. The play will be produced with strict attention to the details of scenery, costumes and effects, and incidental to the performance Patti will introduce her songs, dances, medley and banjo solos, all of her own arrangement and selection. Popular prices.

An item from a correspondent states: "Constable Billy Mays, of Macon, went to Blue Mound the other day and leveled upon three head of horses, two wagons and a buggy, the property of H. Schwab, saloon keeper, to satisfy an execution in favor of the village trustees issued to secure fares and costs to the amount of $400, which were assessed to Schwab for violations of ordinances regulating the whiskey traffic. The same officer came again and leveled upon Charles Groves' hogs and saloon fixtures, to satisfy an execution in favor of the same parties to the amount of $200 and costs. Verily, the ways of the saloon keepers of Blue Mound are not ways of pleasantness just now."

Brother Rogers and family of the United Brethren church, have given a surprise donation visitation last night at the residence of Mr. J. L. Casner, on West Main street. The company had a very enjoyable time, and were served with toothsome refreshments.

There was a successful surprise party last night in honor of Miss Flora Battles, daughter of C. W. Battles, at her home on North Union street. It was arranged by Misses Annie Comman and Stella Stoy. The callers included ten couples and all had a gay time.

A pleasant tea party was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. David Hamsher at their home in honor of Mr. J. L. Casner and daughter, Mrs. Falconer, of Camp Point, Ill., and Mrs. Welsh, of Pennsylvania. The company included a number of Deatur relatives and friends.

The Fire Alarm.
It was sounded early this morning and sent the department flying over into the third ward. The fire was located at the property of Mrs. B. F. Smith at 611 South Seigel street, occupied by Frank S. Perry, and was simply a burning fire; fire out before the arrival of the firemen. No damage.

Married by Rev. Hall.
In Bloomington last evening Willis H. Harwood and Miss Lottie Burr, the daughter of Alonzo Burr, were married. The ceremony was performed at St. Matthew's Episcopal church by the Rev. A. K. Hall, of Deatur. There was a reception to the young couple at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Harwood did not go upon a wedding trip.

The Great Play To-Night.
William Gullette's highly successful American play, "Held by the Enemy," will be presented at Smith's opera house this (Friday) evening, with the same cast, scenery and effects seen during its run of 250 nights at the Madison Square Theatre, New York; 100 nights at the Boston Theatre, Boston; and 75 nights at the Baldwin Theatre, San Francisco. The play is a love story, but is thrilling in the incidents represented which take their color and interest from the surroundings of the war. The prices of admission are: Reserved seats, $1.00; general admission 75 and 50 cents; boys 25 cents.

Will Pay 62 1/2 Cents.
The coal operators at Springfield held an informal meeting yesterday afternoon to consider the features of the miners' strike, which has been going on for the past month. Thirteen mining companies were represented. It was agreed that each operator shall treat or make terms with his own employees, and not with the Miners' Federation officers. It was also agreed that if the miners were willing to return to work they would pay 62 1/2 cents a ton, with a one and one-quarter inch screen. Some of the operators favored forming a pool, but a majority opposed the scheme, and it failed. The prospects are that the strike will terminate by first of next week.

Soiree Musicales.
Last evening a goodly sized audience assembled at the pleasant room of the Deatur Musical College where the faculty gave one of the proverbially excellent recitals. The following excellent program was splendidly given:

First Part.
Rubinstein, Sonata for Piano and Violin, Op. 13
Miss Gale and Prof. Bull
Haydn, "The Creation"
"And God said, 'With Verduce Glad'"
Miss Berry
Mozart, "The Marriage of Figaro"
Miss Gale
Alard, Fantasia from "Linda di Chamounix"
Prof. Bull
Donizetti, "L'Elisir d'Amour"
Prof. Bull
Chopin, "Polonaise Heroique, Op. 33"
Miss Gale

Coming.
The renowned Woody Bros' quartette from Chicago will appear at the tabernacle Monday night. Prices, 20 and 30 cents. The programme will be a fine one. Get seats at Lytle's music store.

Club Meeting.
The November meeting of the Woman's Club will be held at the Universalist church on Saturday, Nov. 5th, at two o'clock. Ladies desiring to present their names for membership to the club will please send them to that meeting. Members in arrears, with their dues, are earnestly requested to bring or send the amount due. Business of importance relating to charitable work will be brought before the Club, and a full attendance of members is important.

Attention, Hibernians.
Bring your regulars only to James Veale before 2 o'clock Sunday at the store.

Sales of Real Estate.
C. M. Allison has sold to Ednor E. Ticknor, of Illinois, a lot 200x270 feet on West Main street, just west of the residence of E. McClellan, beyond the city limits, for $1200.

Mary Hornestein to Minnie Ballow, an undivided one-fourth interest in lot 15, block 7, B. H. Cassell's First Addition—$100.

Sale of Personal Property.
I will sell at public sale at my residence, nine miles west of Deatur, and one mile northwest of Harrisburg, on Thursday, November 10th, 1887, all of personal property, embracing

17 head of Horses,
40 head of Cattle,
50 head of Hogs,
2500 bushels of Corn,
Farming Implements,
Household and Kitchen Furniture.

Wedding and Ball Goods.
We are in receipt of a full line of wedding invitations, ball programmes, etc., of the latest designs. They include some of the handsomest patterns ever seen in this city. If you are intending to give a ball, or have any notion of getting married, don't fail to see these samples.

The new meat market on West Deatur street, at the Chenoweth grocery store, has secured a new butcher, and the patronage of the shop will now be served with good meat, and properly varied upon.

The Deatur well was not very deep, but operations have ceased temporarily because of a mishap to the drill which is lost at the bottom. Another surface well has been struck at Cerro Gordo. The flow is said to be strong and steady. It will be used to heat the bank.
At Heyworth, at a depth of 214 feet, J. O. Wakefield struck gas or air. The discharge is not odorless, and to the hand feels nearly ice cold. The pipe is two inches in diameter and the discharge is sufficient to throw half a dozen feet in the air. It is thought that the pressure is sufficient to raise a 300 pound weight off the top of the pipe; it takes the strength of two men to hold a plank over the top of the pipe. It is not known whether the discharge is gas or air; has not been ignited because of its frightful character and because of the close proximity of buildings. It is accompanied by a constant roaring that can be heard a mile away. The well was sunk through two strata of rock, one of which was thirty-six feet thick and the other eleven feet. The last 14 feet was through hard pan.

PERSONAL MENTION.

J. D. McGaffey is home on a visit.
Hon. C. P. Emery was in the city last evening on business.

Mrs. Nellie Falconer, of Camp Point, is visiting A. M. Werner and family.

Miss Minnie Elam, of Mowague, has been visiting Deatur friends.

Dr. W. H. H. Adams has returned to Bloomington from Hot Springs, Ark., very much improved in health.

John H. Rainey got home this morning from Burney, Ind., where he bought a lot of thoroughbred hogs.

Charles Seiwel and children, of Danville, are guests of Dr. Burnstead and family.

Mrs. Jane Craver, of Camp Point, Ill., is in the city the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. G. Starr.

Dr. Peabody, regent of the University of Illinois, delivered his lecture on Conversation at the Baptist church at Lincoln last night.

Rev. J. M. Higgenbotham will leave Deatur to-night and will arrive at Chicago to-morrow morning. He will conduct a funeral service there on Sunday.

John T. Armentrout, aged 38 years, brother of Rev. A. C. Armentrout, died recently at Nokomis, Ill. Milk sickness caused his death.

Prof. Tandy, of Harrisburg, will organize a singing class at Warrensburg. A small town without its singing school would be a novelty.

Dr. J. W. Mitchell, the old veteran who received an injury to his hip while in the war, has been confined to his bed for over two years. He was down town to-day for the fourth time this fall, getting about on crutches.

Jenny Lind (Madame Goldschmidt) the celebrated Swedish singer, is dead. She was 60 years old and had been seriously ill for some weeks. She had not appeared in public since 1885, but in her time had perhaps a greater reputation than any public singer.

Outrivals Nast.

This is what the Melrose Journal said of Mr. W. M. R. French, who is to open the lecture course at the opera house Monday night:

"The members of the Centennial Club Monday evening listened to a delightful lecture on 'Conventional Art in Pictures and Decorations,' by Prof. W. M. R. French, of the Art Institute of Chicago. The free hand sketches were very rapidly and admirably executed, and called forth repeated applause. Prof. French rivals Nast in drawing, and all agreed that the word part of his lecture was much more elevating."

Statement.
The article, "Not True," which appeared in this paper, has not been written by me, nor did I give anybody order to do so, and I do not believe that anybody has the right to advertise anything of the kind. The facts are, that I have been fitted by Dr. W. Lewin with glasses, and although he has not improved them very much, he has not injured them at all. On the contrary, I believe the doctor has done as good as anybody possibly could have done, and I feel sorry that anything appeared in the papers against him.
W. M. BACHMAN.

MARRIED.
On Thursday evening, November 3d, by Rev. J. E. Leake, M. George V. Baker, son of Harrison Baker, and Miss Della J. Field.

The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride in the presence of relatives and friends, who warmly congratulated them. Mr. and Mrs. Baker have gone to housekeeping on West Main street.
By Mrs. H. Curtis, J. P. at his office in Deatur, on Thursday, November 3d, 1887, Harry Walsh and Miss Julia Chapman, both of Niantic, at Springfield, Ill., on November 1st, by Rev. F. W. Schneider, of the Lutheran church, Charles G. Pfeiffer, a baker, and Miss Elizabeth Killian. The couple were attended by Miss Lena, both same, of Deatur, and Miss Carrie Lape, of Springfield. The bride was elegantly attired in a white satin dress, made with a lace front and embellished with pearls and ornaments and the attendants to the bride were white calico suits. After the solemn services, which made the couple man and wife, had been concluded, the guests were served with a bounteous wedding supper. Among the guests from abroad were Harry and Lillie Seufeldman, Maggie Becker, Mrs. Jacob Reubensamen, aunt of the bride, and Susie Reubensamen, of Deatur.

HUNDREDS of persons who have used Ayer's Hair Vigor attest its value, as a stimulant and tonic, for preventing and curing baldness, cleansing the scalp, and restoring the youthful color to faded and gray hair.
